Seventh-day Adventist Church
William E. Carpenter, Pastor
Thanksgiving Worship Ser., Nov. 30, 1963
Silent Prayer; Doxology; Prayer, Pastor Carpenter; Hymn, "Praise Ye the Father for His Loving Kindness; Main Thanksgiving Prayer, Walter V. Young. Solo, Miss Ella Mae Stoneburner, 'I'd Rather Have Jesus' Subject 'Heavens Keynote' Scripture Reading —Luke 17:12-19 'Only one of the lepers returned to give thanks, and Heavens Keynote is thankfulness said Pastor Carpenter ascending to the parable only about 90 per cent of the people ever return thanks for God's goodness and mercy and wonderful works to the children of men. We must learn to be thankful for it is one of God's commands.' We read in Thess. 5:18 'In everything give thanks for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you'. Deut. 26:11. 'and thou shalt rejoice in every good thing which the Lord thy God hath given unto thee and unto thine house, thou and the Livite, and the stranger that is among you.' Col. 3:15-17 'And let the peace of God rule in your hearts to the which also ye are called in one body: and be ye thankful,' 'Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs singing with grace in your hearts, to the Lord' 'and whatsoever ye do in word, or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus giving thanks to God and the Father by him.'

After reading the 107th Psalm the service closed with singing the hymn 'Praise Him: Praise Him' and a prayer Praise singing and thanksgiving is 'Heaven Keynote.' May God help us all to make each day a Thanksgiving Day. If we make this the fundamenta principe or note, of our lives we can rest assured that all heaven will be attuned to that note as we as sons and daughters of the living God journey to the promised land.

What do we have to be thankful for? Words can hardly explain or tell what we have to be thankful for. God sent his son, into the world that he died such a cruel death on the cross to save us of our sins. It is wonderful to know that when we are in trouble and sin that we have someone to ask for help and forgiveness. We little think about what a cruel death that Jesus suffered for us. We have so many wonderful things to be thankful for, that God has given us to enjoy. He has given us a free life and a free nation. He has given us a place to live, clothing to wear, food to eat, parents to care for us, and many more wonderful things to be thankful for. One of the most important thing he has given us, is love. Love is one of the most wonderful words and feeling anyone can have. We should love everyone and not pretend to love them, but really and truely love them. Love everyone with brotherly affection. If anyone say false things against you or harm you, dont curse them, but pray for them and ask God to bless them. If some of our friends need help, let us be the first one to help. We should never pay evil for evil but do things in the honest way. If we feed and give drink to our enemies when they are hungry and thirsty we will be heaping coals of fire on their head. We should conquer evil by doing good deeds. We have so much to be thankful for that a newspaper couldn't possibly hold it all. Each of us should ask ourselves what we have to be thankful for. As the Bible says, Do unto others as you would have them to do unto you.

You've Got to Try It To Believe It.
